But all that we could see for miles was red, red dry dirt

Etc.

So we started to sing a song, a song to bring the rain
Singing to the new-born stars and the moon on the wane

Wo-oooh-oooh Wo, a moon on the wane

Wo-oooh ooh under that starlit sky

Wo-oooh ooh, and my baby Rhinocer - i.

Rhinoceri song

Wo-oooh wo-oooh wo o ho oo wo Haaaaa oooo Wo ooh wo ooh oh

Well I don't know if you've ever heard an Elephant singing a song
It's rather like a long trombone blasting out loud and strong

Wo-oooh--oooh Wo, so loud and strong

Wo-oooh ooh was my elephants song

Wo-oooh ooh, my baby Rhinoceri.

Am////////F//////// / Am////////F////////

But it seemed to do the job and the clouds came streaming in Pitter patter, wish wash came the rain splashing wet on his skin

Wo-oooh-oooh Wo, So wet on his skin

F
Wo-oooh ooh from that Elephant din

Wo-oooh ooh, he put his tongue to the sky
